- varying regional challenges in relation to
 - economic structure,
 - topography,
 - demographics

How to support sub-regional level in innovation policy?

How to transfer the RIS3 idea to sub-regional level?

Baden-Württemberg MINISTRY OF ECONOMIC AFFAIRS, LABOUR AND HOUSING Rationale behind RegioWIN (5)

Involving stakeholders at sub-regional level

Not a funding programme, but an interregional competition

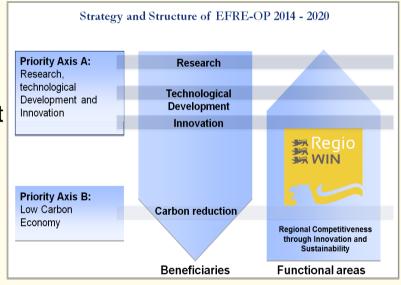

- based on Smart Specialisation
- addressing the five central challenges
- create best ideas in terms of regional development

Goal

- Support cities and regions to enhance their competitiveness
- Involve stakeholders in strategy development as base for future regional development
- Regional Ownership of strategy and project implementation

Input

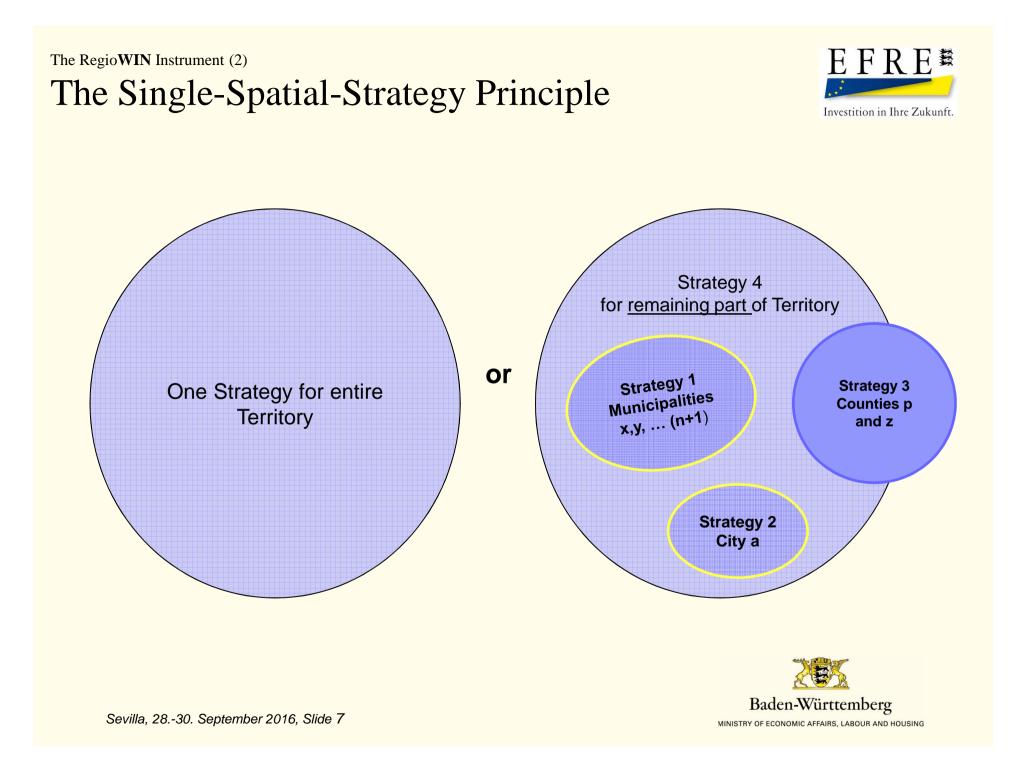

- Joint effort of three BW ministries
- Full coverage of ERDF Programme range
- Long range preparation

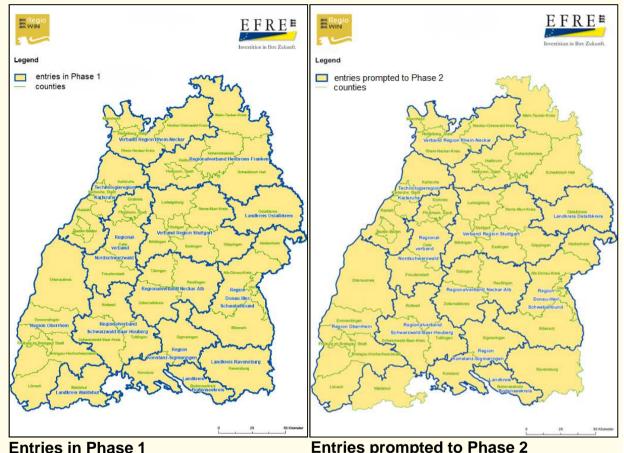

Sevilla, 28.-30. September 2016, Slide 6

Outcome of RegioWIN (1) Phase 1

- Full coverage of BW with sub-regional strategy development
- more than 1500 stakeholders involved
- freedom of territorial choice leads to new alliances

Entries prompted to Phase 2

- 11 out of 14 Regional Strategy Concepts prompted to Phase 2
- RIS3 easier to apply to smaller and homogeneous regions than to large regions

Outcome of RegioWIN (2)Phase 2

- Additional stakeholders involved
- all 11 Regional Development
 Strategies were awarded
 WINregion Lable
- 21 Lighthouse projects qualified for ERDF funding
- all contesting regions follow-up Strategic processes on their own accord
- RegioWIN Network established
- established as label in connection with unusally good press coverage for ERDF funded activities
